OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

[illegible]

FRIDAY MORNING, FEB. 7, 18[illegible]

See first and fourth pages.

The Union Party of Oregon

[illegible] from all parties and elements [illegible] a union for the sake of the Union [illegible] well with the people. It would be a great misfortune to our State [illegible] Union citizens [illegible] should fall into the hands of the Secessionists. We know well what they would do. We have had an illustration of what would be their policy in their sending to the Senate of the United States to act for our State a man whose sympathies [illegible] his statements [illegible] against our Government. That there would be danger of such a misfortune can readily be seen by the following facts, if the present parties in this State should go into an election without a union of the Union men.

At the last Presidential election more votes were polled for the secession candidates than were polled by the Union democracy, and the republicans carried the State by a small plurality. The secession party will attempt to carry this State at the June election. That was the very object for which Lane [illegible] came to this coast. A union of Union men cannot fail to be successful, and such a success would be more desirable than a mere plurality as republicans, if that could be achieved. The interests of Right, Humanity and Liberty, will be more advanced by a Union file triumph than by a republican plurality, or a Douglas democracy plurality. Our Government, Constitution and Union are assailed by a most tremendous rebellion — sympathizers with that rebellion are all about us. The slogan for "Breckinridge men to be ready" is heard through all the secession presses. Union men know their duty, and will perform it.

The European War with Mexico

The last news from Mexico [illegible] Atlantic papers shows that the President and Congress are willing to do all in their power to satisfy the legitimate demands of France and England. Mr. Wyke, the English Minister, submitted to the Government of Mexico an ultimatum composed of three conditions—two of which were at once agreed to by the Government, while on the third, relating to interference with the Custom collections, no action had yet been taken, though [illegible] on that point was regarded as a virtual surrender of independence. The French Minister's ultimatum embraced five points—four of which the Mexican Government stood ready to concede. The fifth article, relating to ample satisfaction for alleged insults offered to the Minister [illegible] street squabble, could hardly be agreed to by Mexico, for the reason that previous legal investigation had shown that the Minister himself was really the offending party in the row. In regard to the [illegible] demands of Spain, the Mexican Government would and could make no concessions. Mexico has thus done all in her power, in the desperate straits in which she is placed, to satisfy and conciliate England and France, while her old enemy, Spain, she knows to be irreconcilable by any argument but force.

The grounds of war on the part of France and England are thus reduced to two—the avenging of a street squabble insult and the enforcing of the collection of a doubtful debt in a certain manner. These are their pretexts. For this their fleets are in the Gulf.

If we are to judge from the news by the last arrival from Acapulco, the conquest of Mexico will be harder work than the allies have reckoned on. Undoubtedly they can take possession of the ports—probably they are at this time in possession of those on the Gulf. But they will be likely to find "Jordan a hard road to travel" if they attempt to penetrate into the interior. All accounts concur in stating that the different parties in Mexico have united to sustain the Government.

General News

HOMES FOR THE SOLDIER.—In the House on the 18th [illegible] consideration [illegible] homestead [illegible]

[illegible]

CONGRESS.—A [illegible] franking privilege, but [illegible] making the postage on an Agricultural Report [illegible] cents [illegible] of the Congressional Globe [illegible] hundred dollars.

Geo. K. Sheil writes from Washington [illegible] this war continues one year [illegible] factories will become the habitations of owls and wolves. It will gratify [illegible] to learn that the Union men are shipping North ship loads of cotton from Beaufort.

Government officers are employing the contrabands in gathering the cotton crops in the neighborhood of Port Royal. They pay them $3 for every hundred weight they gather neatly and deliver, and for this pay they work cheerfully and well.

J. C. Breckinridge, in August last, professed to be a great friend of the Union. He was quite as boisterous [illegible] secession prints of Oregon. He then said that he was for neutrality [illegible] the part of Kentucky, but was willing to acquiesce in whatever the majority of the people [illegible] He [illegible] that he had been charged with being a disunionist. This charge was false. A love of the Union was deeply seated in his heart, and no man could more strongly desire than he [illegible] the whole people united in fraternity and affection, and the rights of all under the Constitution fully guaranteed and protected.

The people of Kentucky did express themselves fairly by a large majority against [illegible]—and then J. C. Breckinridge stole [illegible] the rebel army.

COLORED TROOPS.—There are two regiments of colored men at Centreville [illegible] 1812 having [illegible] Jackson. One of these numbers eleven hundred, and the other fourteen hundred. [illegible] other colored regiments have been sent to [illegible] since the last battle there. [illegible] ments are composed of both free and slave. They are not all well to do picket duty, but are drilled and encamped separate from the white men. Their officers are all colored.

REINSTATEMENT OF COLONEL MULLIGAN.—The President has reinstated Col. Mulligan in the command of his regiment. By an order of General Halleck the commissions of all regimental officers expire when their regiments are mustered out of service. Col. Mulligan and his command having been taken prisoners of war, were mustered out, but an exception has been made in their case, and the gallant Colonel and his regiment are restored to their original status.

THE SOUND MAIL.—We learn from Judge [illegible] of Washington Territory that the mail has been carried every day, regularly, between Olympia and Monticello during the late inclement weather. The [illegible] on that route will be [illegible]

FARMERS COMING.—We hear that among the crowd who came up on the Cortes and were landed at Astoria were several persons with cash who came to purchase farms in Oregon—believing that farming here will be likely to pay.

WASHINGTON LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature of Washington Territory has adjourned, but we have no later record of their proceedings than we have already published.

Jefferson and Quailmey, boys about 13, came to the Yankees because the overseer gave them too much work to do, and they did not have enough to eat. He used to whip them if he caught them getting fish from the creek.

Gabriel, [illegible] about 28 years of age, said that he was a tailor, and worked for Charles Morgan, of Beaufort. He came in to work at his trade. His master ran off after the fort was taken, and wanted him to follow, but he was not fool enough to do so. [illegible] Mr. Morgan talk with his [illegible] about the Yankees coming. I was [illegible] read in the papers that when Lincoln was elected the soldiers would be sent [illegible] free the niggers. CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

IMPROVING.—The appearance of our city was somewhat livelier than usual yesterday. There were an [illegible] crowds of men and women, and the [illegible] were thronged [illegible]. Business received something of a start, and every body [illegible] was talking rapturously of of the [illegible], or making the necessary inquiries [illegible] [illegible] and the town is [illegible] most likely to hold them a hard[illegible] [illegible] The steamer now runs up the Willamette and adds greatly to the life of the city. We hope for a continuance of the fine weather.

FIREMEN'S ELECTION.—The annual election for officers of the different fire companies took place yesterday, and resulted as follows:

Willamette No. 1.—Foreman, P. C. Schuyler, Jr.; First Assistant, W. L. Higgins; Second Assistant, Jos. Bergman; President, Shubrick Norris; Secretary, R. B. Knapp; Treasurer, Harris Seymour. Members Board of Delegates—Henry Failing, P. C. Schuyler, Jr., Shubrick Norris.

Multnomah No. 2.—Foreman, A. B. Hallock; First Assistant, Jos. Buchtel; Second Assistant, S. Skidmore; President, A. J. Butler; Secretary, E. L. Norden; Treasurer, A. C. Ripley; Auditing Committee, Messrs. Failing, Reese, and Sherlock. Members Board of Delegates—Messrs. Hallock, Davis, and Eltel.

Columbian No. 3.—Foreman, Wm. Dellinger; First Assistant, J. P. Dennison; Second Assistant, Wm. Young; President, John A. Thompson; Secretary, H. Boyd; Treasurer, H. Wasserman. Members Board of Delegates—H. Boyd, Thos. Neally, J. P. Dennison.

Vigilance Hook & Ladder No. 1.—Foreman, Marx Jarotzky; First Assistant, James Farrell; Second Assistant, John Ewry; President, John McCracken; Secretary, E. W. McGraw; Treasurer, E. G. Randall. Members Board of Delegates—John McCracken, E. G. Randall, E. W. McGraw.

ICE IN THE COLUMBIA.—The steamer Cowlitz, which left here yesterday morning for Monticello, returned in the afternoon, not being able to reach that point. She first run down the slough until stopped by the ice, and then returned to the river, and by means of cutting through was enabled to reach the Columbia—down which she went as far as Willow Bar, some ten miles this side of St. Helens. There she was stopped again by the ice—not even a skiff could pass along.

CATTLE.—We noticed two very large droves of cattle passing along our streets yesterday. They did not appear to have suffered a great deal from hunger, as they were in tolerable good order for beef. Who they belonged to or where they were going, we were unable to learn. We hope there has not been so much suffering among cattle as has been reported.

SWEEP IT OFF.—The snow lying on the side walks should be shoveled off as soon as it melts sufficiently to allow of it. The difficulty of walking on snow after it has once melted is very great, and is attended with no little danger. We would advise all to go to work and sweep their side-walks, thereby allowing the ladies to travel to their places of business.

RECRUITS FOR CLACKAMAS.—Major William Barlow, recruiting officer for Clackamas county, was in this city yesterday, and succeeded in enlisting several men for the cavalry company now forming in that county. We learn that two-thirds of the company is made up of farmers' sons. It is now ready to be mustered into service.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Charles McKay was taken before the Recorder yesterday, charged by his daughter with coming to her house at three o'clock in the morning and breaking in the doors. His Honor, after giving Charles a lecture sentenced him to pay a fine of fifteen dollars, or saber off by remaining in jail a certain number of days.

EXPIRED.—B. M. Reynolds, convicted in Wasco county for an assault with intent to kill, and sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year, was discharged yesterday, his term having expired.

HOW DEEP IT FROZE.—While workmen were digging for the water pipes yesterday we noticed that the earth had been frozen to the depth of fifteen inches.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—A session of the U. S. District Court will be held this morning, at 10 o'clock A. M.

SAVING THEIR CATTLE.—We met yesterday some farmers who reside in this neighborhood driving quite a number of their cattle to town. One of the gentleman informed us that he does so for the purpose of picking up some fodder by chance.

COUNTY COURT.—The February term of the County Court adjourned sine die yesterday morning.

MARRIED:

In this city, February 6th, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. M. McCarver, by the Rev. P. S. Caffray, Mr. Clinton P. Ferry and Miss Mary Ann Buckalew.

[In addition to the above notice, we received a liberal supply of cake and wine.]

Oh! happy pair, to every blessing born!
For you may life's calm stream unruffled run;
For you its roses bloom without a thorn,
And bright as morning shine its evening sun!
And may the stream of your maturing life
For ever flow, in blissful sunlight, through
A fairy scene with gladsome beauty rife,
As ever greeted the enraptur'd view.

[illegible] and From,
The cheese which received the premium at the late State Fair, is now for sale as above.

SEWING MACHINES

ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—AND—

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order, so as to make a seam [illegible] alike on both sides of the [illegible], and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to sew from [illegible] thread or silk, directly from the spool, and to sew from gauze to [illegible], and from thick to thin with rapidity, and without changing the tensions. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with [illegible] [illegible] should have a straight needle, curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have a perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, [illegible] stitch, fell, run and gather, and always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel-feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to soil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side nor ravel.

Letter from the Butte Democrat.

We find the following letter in the Marysville Appeal, from And. J. Hogg. Some of the California press say that the Oregon papers misrepresent the Salmon River gold mines. We do not believe that this is so. The mines now opened have been proved to be rich almost beyond precedent.

THE NORTHERN MINES.—We noticed the fact, the other day, that a Nez Perces and Salmon river gold fever had broken out among our Oroville neighbors. Since that the following letter from an old resident of Oroville, now in the North, has been published in the Butte Democrat:

DALLES, Oregon, Nov. 10th, 1861.

WM. P. LEWIS—Dear Sir: I have just received your letter, to which I cheerfully reply. And in the outset would advise you, by all means, to come to this section of country. I am of the opinion that the richest diggings in the world have recently been discovered in the Nez Perces and Salmon river countries. The reports from the Salmon river mines are almost incredible; yet, I have no reason to doubt their correctness, but, on the contrary, am forced to believe them. Each succeeding boat from Walla Walla brings news of richer discoveries than the previous one; and the last boat brought news that "caps the climax," and startled us with the report of the fabulous richness of the Salmon river mines. Reliable men say that the miners on that river are taking out gold by the pound—that they don't count by dollars or ounces at all—that they take out from three to ten pounds a day, to the rocker—that there are hundreds who have fifty dollar diggings, which they consider small pay. A man was in my office to-day, who informed me that he had read a letter from his brother-in-law, stating that he was making six pounds per day. The information we get here is derived from men who have come down, bringing large quantities of dust. The Nez Perces mines, which were first discovered, and proved to be rich, have been almost deserted, the miners having rushed to the richer diggings on Salmon river.

I wish you were here now, for I know that a man of your goaheadativeness could push through and winter there, and make more money than you would know what to do with. I have been informed that persons can get to the mines until January. I would have been there long ago, if I had been foot loose; but I have become settled in the practice of my profession, and so wrapped up in business, &c., that I cannot leave without making a great sacrifice. It is better anyhow, that I should follow the profession for which I was educated. I may, however, take the fever and go.

The cost from San Francisco to the mines is near about as follows:

San Francisco to Portland	$20 00
Portland to Dalles	8 00
Dalles to Walla Walla	30 00
Walla Walla overland to mines	50 00
Contingent expenses	20 00

The mines are about 200 miles from Walla Walla.

What I have written, you can take for what it is worth, and act accordingly.

Yours truly, AND. J. HOGG.

NORTH CAROLINA.—The Raleigh Standard has an article in regard to the recent Union Convention in Hyde county. It says:

"Unless the movement is stopped at once by the strong arm of the Confederate States, more than half of the counties in this State will be attached to the Black Republican Government before the Union Congress meets."

The Standard also has a slap at the Confederate Congress, "for leaving this matter with North Carolina to attend to, when it is very evident that the State authorities will never make a move in this direction, owing to the reason that they are in the same boat with the Union."

The same paper also says:

It would not be surprising if the counties should grumble a little at the heavy tax imposed upon them; but to talk about repudiating the entire Government, because they are taxed higher than usual, is trifling with a serious matter."

"If we were to have a new election to-day for the Legislature and State officers, no one knows, amid the present discord, what state of things might turn up."

Five of the North Carolina regiments who were enrolled for the war have been disbanded and surrendered their arms to the State. The Confederate Government gave them neither, pay food nor clothes, and the Standard fears that the other regiments will do likewise unless their demands are promptly met.

NEW ORLEANS.—Mr. J. H. Stille, of Boston, who has recently resided in New Orleans as agent for an Eastern manufacturing firm, has just returned North. He left New Orleans on 23d October, and fully confirms the reports regarding the stagnation of business in that city. The stores and wharves were desolate, and grass was actually growing in some of the principal streets. The books and papers of all Northern firms and agencies in the city have been seized, and the work of confiscation has been driven forward with the greatest possible rapidity.

COL. MULLIGAN.—Col. Mulligan, the hero of Lexington, who is lecturing in the Western cities about the fight which made him famous, having been accused of making invidious distinctions in favor of the part taken by his own countrymen, the Irish, in said fight, took occasion subsequently to make an explanation, in which he awarded equal credit to the German and American soldiers under other officers than himself. The Union soldiers ought to be proud to be considered all Americans, without keeping up trans-atlantic distinctions.

SECESSION CONTEMPT FOR LINCOLN.—The Marysville Express has heaped all manner of personal ridicule on President Lincoln, once calling him "the Gorilla President;" and its congener, the San Jose Tribune, now says:

"How humiliating it is to think that this illiterate backwoodsman, who is not only destitute of the first requirements of a Statesman, but who can scarcely write a sentence of the English language correctly, should now preside over the destinies of millions!"

To this the Mirror tartly replies:

"Thus speaks a democratic journal of President Lincoln's late message. No one but an [illegible] of a traitor could have penned such a sentence. Appealing to the message itself, we deliberately declare at one of the most pertinent, honest, vigorous, straightforward, clear sighted statesman-like documents in all [illegible] customary stiffness and [illegible] style ever issued. 'Humiliating!' Who was Jackson but a 'backwoodsman?' Who were Clay, Webster, Corwin, Houston, Harrison, Fillmore, and hundreds of others whose names and deeds are their country's glory, but lawyers' clerks, schoolmasters, mill boys, wagoners, farmers or 'backwoodsmen?' Had the 'illiterate backwoodsman' in the executive chair been at the helm [illegible] instead of the polished and [illegible] of Wheatland, we should now have no [illegible] Sumner to avenge, no martyred Baker to [illegible], no dishonored flag, no divided country. Give us such 'backwoodsmen' for ever."

A SIGNIFICANT OMEN.—A Fortress Monroe correspondent of an eastern paper has the following incident which occurred just as the great fleet was leaving that place:

Captain Saxon looked aloft, and there, perched on the very top of the mainmast, was an American eagle; he sat there until the roars and the cheers of the men and the swelling music of the 3d New Hampshire band started him off—but not in a fright, for it seemed as though he just dropped himself upon the soft breeze and floated gently away, gazing down upon us as he went, as much as to say, "I have crowned your expedition with luck."

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret Disease—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, Diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and a perfect cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause to consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.— Medicines, with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of those of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent and their statement are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command their publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted:

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrollable passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances, months, of their treatment, I found, to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture; and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared; and in fact, in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago, I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that once under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

B. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco:
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April A. D. 1856. Signed,
[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 3d, 1855.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine, and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well, except that I have not entirely got my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your institute, with my constitution as I thought, broken entirely and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now then you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the enthusiasm, proof of those causes, which you said were principally the causes of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours, THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such, I was then led to believe as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state, and having previous to my affliction, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services; regardless of which however he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
